

We're bringing it home to Chicago.

BLUES
AND THE SPIRIT

Thursday, May 22 through Saturday, May 24, 2008

A SYMPOSIUM ON THE LEGACY OF BLUES AND GOSPEL MUSIC

Information and Registration:
(708) 524-6050
bluesandthespirit@dom.edu
www.dom.edu/bluesandthespirit

Media Sponsor:
Living Blues Magazine

- Academic Presentations
- Blues and Gospel Workshops
- Visual Art and Photography Exhibit
- Nationally Known Musicians
- Bronzeville Tour
- Chicago Blues Club Crawl
- Otis Clay and Sharon Lewis in Concert

Join Sterling Plump, Timuel Black, Portia Maultsby, James Abbington, Horace Maxile, Gayle Dean Wardlow, Barry Dohlins, Billy Branch, Bob Koester, Stephanie Shonekan, Fernando Jones, Fannie Rushing, George Bailey and other distinguished guests for discussion, debate, live musical performances and workshops that explore the shared historical roots of Blues and Gospel and emphasize the heritage of African American Chicago and its music.

Dominican University is conveniently located in Chicago's near-western suburbs, just 9 miles west of Chicago's Loop, and 8 miles from O'Hare Airport.

The university is accessible by public transportation and offers ample free parking.

Affordable on-campus lodging in a modern suite-style residence hall is available for symposium registrants.

Visit our website, call or email us for registration and program information.

Sponsored by the Department of Sociology, the Siena Center and the Office of Multicultural Affairs
The Symposium is made possible in part by a grant from the Illinois Humanities Council, the National Endowment for the Humanities and the Illinois General Assembly.

For more information, please contact:

Dr. Janice Monti, Symposium Director
(708) 524-6050

bluesandthespirit@dom.edu
www.dom.edu/bluesandthespirit

